

Ode to books

By Vincent Kapoor

Oh books, oh books

You are the books that share the knowledge when you look

The books that tell the stories

When I read you I have no more worries

I flick through scouring every precious word

You share stories heard and unheard

Oh books, oh books

You are the recipe book for cooks

And help us do our jobs and live

All the knowledge we need to know you can give

Oh books, oh books

You tell stories for all to look

You calm me down when I'm feeling annoyed

And then help me feel enjoyed

You are an escape to another world

A world where I nothing matters

Oh books, oh books

When I read you let me imagine the world of the book and how it looks
